

Quick Guide courtesy of County of Los Angeles

QUICK GUIDE TO UPPER SOLSTICE CANYON TRAIL

DESCRIPTION: This segment of the Backbone Trail traverses upper Solstice Canyon. Start and end at higher elevations with great ocean views. In between, dive into the wooded canyon for one of the longest stretches of welcomed shade in the mountains.

DIRECTIONS: From the PCH, travel 5 miles north up Corral Canyon Road. The last 0.4 miles are unpaved and reach the deadend at Corral Canyon Trailhead.

SANTA MONICA MOUNTAINS NATIONAL RECREATION AREA

BACKBONE TRAIL SYSTEM

Length: 2.66 miles

Elev. Gain: 554 feet

west end

east end

Access & Features

- Trailhead
- End of Public Trail

Trail Type

— Natural Trail

Public Parkland and
Other Protected Open Space

1

